

2022 Sept Holidays Workshop
GCE 'O' Level Sec 4 Social Studies

ALL LESSONS ARE CONDUCTED ONLINE VIA ZOOM AND MATERIALS UPLOADED INTO GOOGLE CLASSROOM

This is the final stretch before the 2022 'O' Levels and the Humanities Hub is proud to announce the final part of our Social Studies Bootcamp series. This series builds on the skills covered during the June Bootcamp and offers additional solutions to answering the different question types that have been covered earlier.

“What do I do if I am short on time?”

“How do I answer this question if I am not sure what it is testing?”

“How much should I write? Is this too little or too much?”

These are some of the questions that students often struggle with and this Bootcamp aims to help students find the best possible solutions for improvement within the shortest time frame. In an ideal situation, students will finish all parts of the paper in a timely manner. However, things are seldom ideal and it is always good to be prepared with alternatives. The focus of this final Bootcamp is to provide students with a safety net and back-up plan for what to do if they find themselves struggling to finish the paper on time.
